Cultivate Kansas City to Host First 'Work the Farm' Day of the Season

Volunteers from throughout the metro area will become farm hands for a day as they take part in Cultivate Kansas City's first "Work the Farm Day" of the season on Saturday, April 1.

Approximately 20 volunteers of all ages will be working at the Juniper Gardens Training Farm from 9 a.m. to noon. The farm is located at 100 Richmond, Kansas City, KS. Volunteers will be learning how to maintain an urban farm while furthering Cultivate Kansas City's mission of growing foods, farm and community in the Kansas City area.

Work the Farm Day is held the first Saturday of each month during growing season.
